ORDERED INTO ACTION

Seventeenth Infantry to Be Placed on the Firing Line.

NEBRASKANS WANT A REST.

Western Regiment Is Said to Be Exhasted and Have Requested the Division Commander For Relief to Recuperate.

Manilla, May 12.—Fresh troops are beginning to go to the front.

Two battalions of the Seventeenth Infantry, the regulars formerly stationed at Columbus, O., that have been holding the lines about the city of Manilla, will join Major General MacArthur's division at San Fernando at once, and one battalion of the same regiment will reinforce Major General Lawton's division near Bacolor.

These troops are to be replaced here by the Twenty-first infantry regiment, which arrived from the United States on the transport Hancock.

Captain Grant of the Utah battery, whose success in managing the army gunboats Laguna de Bay and Cavadonga, has won for him the sobriquet of "the Dewey of the army," has been put in command of the recently purchased Spanish gunboats, whose arms the insurgents captured. These vessels are now being prepared for operations on the rivers and along the coast. The arming of the gunboats is being pushed with all diligence.

Want to Be Relieved.

Manilla, May 12.—The First Nebraska volunteer infantry is taking the unusual step of respectfully petitioning the division commander, Major General MacArthur, to temporarily relieve them from duty at the front. The regiment is badly exhausted by the campaign in which it has taken an active part, and not many more than 300 men of the organization are at present for duty. On Sunday last 160 men of the regiment responded to sick call. It is added that many of the men have been unable to have their clothing washed for months past, having been compelled during all this time to sleep in their uniforms, to be in readiness for fighting. The memorial adds that since Feb. 2 the regiment has lost 225 men in killed and wounded, and 59 since the battle of Malolos.

List of Casualties.

Washington, May 12.—The war department received from General Otis at Manilla the following list of casualties: Wounded—First North Dakota, May 2, company G, Private Charles Oldstad, hand, moderate; Thirteenth Minnesota, May 8, Major Arthur O. Diggles, forehead, severe; Second Oregon, company F, Corporal John C. Miller, arm, slight; First Montana, company K, First Sergeant Patrick McBride, chest, severe; company M, Private Swift, puncture, forearm, severe. Frank Smith, company F, Thirteenth Minnesota, reported killed May 1, should read Frank Lewis.

Force the Fighting.

Hot Springs, Va., May 12.—"Force the fighting. Penetrate far into the interior and capture or destroy every warring Filipino." That is the pith of a long cipher telegram President McKinley sent to General Otis in Manilla. It was prompted by several dispatches from General Otis transmitted by Secretary Alger, which greatly encouraged the president.

Ordered to Manilla.

Omaha, May 12.—The Sixteenth Infantry, stationed at Fort Crook and Jefferson barracks, has been ordered to sail from San Francisco for Manilla on May 29.

Briggs Will Be Ordained.

New York, May 12.—In spite of all the influential opponents to the ordination of Rev. Dr. Briggs, who have let Bishop Potter know how they feel about his proposed advancement to the priesthood, the statement is made positively that the ordination will take place somewhere next Sunday. Direct information from the only authentic source, Bishop Potter, can not be obtained, but it is expected that the bishop will announce the church in which the ceremony will be held. In that case representatives of the opposition to Dr. Briggs will be present to make a formal protest.

China May Not Acquiesce.

Peking, May 12.—The Chinese government, in acknowledging receipt of a communication regarding the Anglo-Russian agreement as to spheres of interest in China, expressly declares that the acknowledgement in nowise implies acquiescence. Immediately after communicating the agreement the Russian minister, M. De Giers, demanded the right to build a railway connecting the Manchurian system with Peking. This is regarded as of the utmost importance.

MURDERER HARVEY Says He Is Sorry That He Killed His Wife.

Howard City, May 12.—Joseph Harvey, murdered of his grandmother, uncle and wife, who also fatally wounded his father-in-law and tried to commit suicide, was taken to the county jail at Stanton after being arraigned before a justice of the peace. He waived examination and was held for trial.

The young man slept soundly, and when questioned by weeping relatives he expressed no emotion over his atrocious crimes. He has given no evidences whatever of insanity, saying only that Pierson, his uncle, abused him and quarreled with him because he had been driving Pierson's horse in the rain.

He still insists that his dead uncle killed his grandmother, and that he then killed his uncle out of revenge. He says he is sorry that he killed his wife, but did it because he intended to kill himself and did not want her to live after he was gone.

FREIGHT HANDLERS

Quit Work at Lackawanna Docks — No Change at Buffalo.

Buffalo, May 12.—There was no material change at the elevators. Everybody is waiting the outcome of the conference at Bishop Quigley's residence.

Between 30 and 40 colored men were brought here from Cincinnati during the night and placed to work on the Central docks. They proved to be experienced workmen.

The Erie brought in about 150 men, section and other hands, picked up along the road, to work on their docks. A number of the men refused to go to work.

Twenty-five experienced freight handlers quit work at the Lackawanna docks soon after starting. They objected to working on the same terms with a squad of green hands.

Hartman Statue Unveiled.

Harrisburg, May 12.—The equestrian statue of Major General Hartman, in Capital park, was unveiled with impressive ceremonies in the presence of a large concourse of people. These exercises were followed by a parade, in which the survivors of the Third division of the Ninth army corps, commanded by General Hartman in the civil war, had the right of line. The procession also included the Ninth regiment of immunes from Camp Meade, a provisional brigade of the national guard, and Grand Army posts and Sons of Veterans camps of Harrisburg and vicinity, and the Harrisburg fire department.

Against Sunday Newspapers.

London, May 12.—A deputation, including the Rt. Rev. Mandell Creighton, bishop of London; Mr. Hugh Price Hughes and others, representing several religious bodies, waited upon the Rt. Hon. Sir Matthew White Ridley, secretary of state of the home department, protesting against 7-day newspapers. Mr. John Burns said that Sunday was the British workingman's treasure, and that Sunday newspapers were unnecessary. The home secretary replied that he was entirely in sympathy with the deputation, but that he was afraid the government could do nothing in the premises.

Tornado in Mexico.

Dallas, May 12.—A special from Eagle Pass, Tex., says the Hondo coal mine, 100 miles south of here, in Mexico, was visited Wednesday by a terrific tornado, dealing death and destruction in its path. The upper story of the general office, hotel, depot and pump house were blown away. A string of freight cars were carried several hundred yards out on the prairie. Eight bodies have been recovered and others are supposed to be in the ruins. A great many were seriously wounded, among them Superintendent McKinney, Lawrence McKinney, his son, is dead.

Ex-Governor Norther Elected.

Louisville, May 12.—The forty-fourth Southern Baptist convention was called to order in Warren Memorial church by President Johathan Haralson of Alabama. Nearly 1,000 delegates, representing all southern states, were present, while it is estimated that there are 10,000 visitors in the city attracted by the convention. The first business of the convention was the election of officers. Rev. J. B. Gambrill of Texas nominated ex-Governor W. F. Norther of Georgia, who was finally elected.

President's Daily Routine.

Hot Springs, Va., May 12.—There is little variety in the president's daily movements here. Breakfast, the mail, morning papers, and then, accompanied by Dr. Rixey, his medicinal bath, form a routine that is broken only by his stroll through the grounds. The walks are much enjoyed by him.

Baron Edgar De Bara, charged with using the mails to defraud, had his bond raised, instead of reduced, by a Chicago judge.

A SPIRITED DISCUSSION

Precipitated in Convention of the Confederate Veterans.

REPORT ON CARE OF GRAVES.

Federal Aid Desired For Dead Buried in the North, but Southern Ladies Will Attend to the Ceremonies at Home.

Charleston, S. C., May 12.—The report of the historical committee was read before the Confederate Veterans at the morning session. The report was adopted. Robert Lee, Jr., the grandson of General Robert E. Lee, was introduced to the convention, and then Dr. J. L. M. Curry addressed the gathering. He declared there was no rebellion and no rebels, but a fight for principles and right. His speech created enthusiasm.

The committee on resolutions then reported the substitute for the resolution on the federal care of the Confederate graves, recommending "the United Confederate Veterans record their sincere appreciation of the utterance of the president of the United States, in Atlanta in December last, concerning the assumption of the care of the graves of our Confederate dead by the national government," that "we shall welcome any legislation which shall result in the care of the graves of our comrades in the northern states by our government."

In regard to the Confederate dead, it recommends "the care of their final resting places is a sacred trust, dear to the hearts of southern women, and we believe we can safely let it remain there."

Rev. Taylor Martin of Pulaski, Va., spoke against the adoption of the report. He said the veterans had nothing to do with any suggestion from the president, and they would never be placed in the attitude of being under obligations to the government that slew southern men. He said the dead heroes had rather lie in unmarked graves, kept green by loyal southern women than sleep beneath the costliest monument the federal government could erect.

Theodore H. Bushee of North Carolina declared in a spirited speech that it would be disloyalty to the chief of the nation, and a disgrace to the Confederacy, if the report was not adopted as received from the committee. He said he was a Confederate soldier, but is now a citizen of the United States and loyal to its flag.

The adoption of the report, he said, meant that southern women would always decorate and care for the graves in the south, but that the graves in the north, where no southern women lived, would be cared for by the government, rather than go uncared for.

The discussion then grew very bitter and great confusion followed.

"There's too much McKinleyism in it," shouted a veteran from the audience. Various expressions followed this, many of them bitter and sensational. The report was finally adopted with cheers.

The United Confederate Veterans elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Commander-in-chief General John B. Gordon; commander of the department of northern Virginia, General Wade Hampton; commander department of Tennessee, General Stephen D. Lee; commander of the department of the transmississippi, General W. L. Cabell.

In accepting General Gordon said there were now Confederate camps in Boston, New York, Chicago and Columbus, O. The next reunion will be held at Louisville, Ky.

Colquitt Defeats Lee.

Charleston, S. C., May 12.—W. J. Colquitt of Atlanta was elected commander-in-chief of the Sons of the Confederate Veterans. His only opponent was Robert E. Lee of Virginia.

BISHOP POTTER

Officially Announces Arrangements For Ordination of Dr. Briggs.

New York, May 12.—Bishop Potter gave out the following formal notice: "The Rev. Dr. Briggs and the Rev. Charles H. Snedeker will be ordained on the day officially appointed by the bishop of New York, May 14, at the Pro-cathedral, New York, at 10:45 a. m. The Rev. George William Douglass will preach the ordination sermon. The Rev. Dr. Cornelius B. Smith will present Dr. Briggs and the Rev. George Francis Nelson will present Mr. Snedeker."

Bishop Potter chose the Pro-cathedral as the place for the ordination because Dr. Briggs had asked to be assigned to work there, and will work there in the future.

LANGLEY'S FLYING MACHINE.

The Improved Apparatus Not as Successful as the Original.

Washington, May 12.—Professor S. P. Langley, secretary of the Smithsonian institution, the inventor of the Aerodrome, who was given $25,000 by the board of ordnance to experiment with his flying machine for war purposes, made his first test at Quantico, Va. Professor Langley, with the amount of money placed at his disposal, built a new and larger machine than that which he experimented two years ago. The machine was launched from the top of a houseboat anchored in a broad sweep of the Potomac, about three-quarters of a mile from the island owned by the Quantico Rod and Gun club. The result was not so successful as were Professor Langley's former experiments with the smaller machine. This machine soared aloft to a height of 500 feet, but descended after a horizontal flight of 300 feet.

His former machine, which was propelled by a small steam engine, flew three-quarters of a mile from the island owned by the Quantico Rod and Gun club. The result was not so successful as were Professor Langley's former experiments with the smaller machine. This machine soared aloft to a height of 500 feet, but descended after a horizontal flight of 300 feet.

COUNTY PROSECUTOR

Seeks to Prevent the Purchase of a Tin Plate Plant by a Trust.

Cincinnati, May 12.—County Prosecutor Attorney Schwartz filed quo warranto suit against the alleged trust known as the American Tin Plate company. The Cincinnati Milling and Tin Plate company is made defendant.

It is alleged that this company has given an option of purchase to the American Tin Plate company, through F. S. Wheeler, their agent, for $195,000. It is alleged that the inventory of the Cincinnati company shows only $40,000. The prosecutor alleges that the combination amounts to a restriction of trade, and is in violation of law.

The Same Members.

Cincinnati, May 12.—Although the twenty-eighth annual meeting of the National Association of Stove Molders closed with the election of officers and the banquet, most of the members are still here conferring with "the joint committee on combination," or rather on the organization of a trust. It is stated that this is a matter outside of the association proper. It is another organization, although the members are the same. It is thought that the meeting in New York next year will be under new conditions entirely.

Is It a Joke?

Columbus, O., May 12.—Coroner Birmingham received a letter from W. H. Stockman, in which the author says that he suicided in the Scioto river during the last 48 hours. The coroner regards the communication as a joke, especially in view of the fact that the envelope, postmarked "1:30 p. m., May 11, Columbus, O." invites the postmaster to "return, if not called for in five days, to William H. Stockman, 78 North Pearl street."

Wages of Puddlers Increased.

Youngstown, O., May 12.—The authoritative statement was given here that the Republic Iron and Steel company will at once raise the wages of puddlers 25 cents a ton, and that the wages of other Amalgamated association employees will be increased in proportion. This increase is retroactive, taking effect May 1. It will affect thousands of iron workers in the Mahoning valley. The puddlers are now paid $4 a ton.

Suppressors of Vice.

Cincinnati, May 12.—At the annual meeting of the Western Society for the Suppression of Vice the following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing year: President, W. J. Breed, Cincinnati; vice presidents, J. D. Hearne, Cincinnati; H. D. Penfield, Chicago; Isaac M. Mason, St. Louis; secretary, Lawrence Poland, Cincinnati; treasurer, C. McClung Thompson, St. Louis; agent, R. W. McAfee, St. Louis.

Arrested at Pittsburg.

Columbus, O., May 12.—J. W. Wellford, who swindled Columbus merchants by representing that he had vast wealth at Honolulu, was arrested at Pittsburg. His partner, James Hilliard, was also arrested.

New Incorporations.

Columbus, O., May 12.—The Park Building company, Cleveland, capital stock $10,000; the Belefontaine Brick and Tile company, Bellefontaine, capital stock $10,000.

Dance Within Pen Walls.

Columbus, O., May 12.—A number of young couples enjoyed a dance within the penitentiary walls, the music being furnished by the prisoners.

Colored Man Hanged.

Washington, May 12.—Edward Smith, colored, was hanged in the district jail. He refused to the last to make any confession of his crime. Smith killed a colored woman.

FIRST POSITIVE NEWS

About the Return of Admiral Dewey by Way of New York.

EVENT FOR FOURTH OF JULY

Officials of Navy Department Estimate That the Hero of Manila Will Be Home For Celebration of the Glorious Day.

Washington, May 12.—"Send Olympia's mail to B. F. Stevens, 4 Trafalgar Square, London, England," was the notice given out at the navy department.

This is the first formal indication that the famous flagship is coming home immediately.

Upon inquiry it was ascertained that Secretary Long had cabled Admiral Dewey permission to return at once to the United States. He has been relieved of the obligation guarding Manila until the Philippine commission completes his work.

He is not even expected to await the cessation of hostilities, but may start at once. The above notice posted indicates that the Olympia will not remain long enough to receive the next outward mail.

Mr. Stevens, referred to, is the navy department's agent at London to distribute all of the mail of the United States warships in European waters, so he will see to it that the Olympia receives hers as soon as she passes the Suez canal.

It is estimated at the navy department that Dewey will reach the United States in time for a national demonstration on the Fourth of July next. The Olympia will not come under full steam, but, nevertheless, she should make the run to New York in about 55 days from Manila. That she is to come to New York is nearly certain, as shown by the response made by Secretary Long to the urgent message of invitation to Dewey from Mayor Van Wyck to New York.

It may be stated that the following letter was sent before the notice was sent to Dewey that he might come at once: "I am in receipt of your telegram with regard to the return of Admiral Dewey, and expressing a desire that he arrives in the country at New York. The time of his return has not been fixed and the department has taken no other action than to authorize his return whenever the condition of the peace commission shall permit. As to the route he shall take in returning the department is inclined to leave that to him. He has served with great ability and must necessarily feel so much the effect of his arduous labors in a trying climate, and under trying circumstances, that the department is disposed to let him govern himself in this respect largely by the consideration of his own personal convenience and wish. It is understood, however, that Admiral Dewey will elect to return to New York."

A WRITER in the American Review of Reviews for May makes this assertion:

"Whatever one may say about New York City under Tammany, Philadelphia must stand as the colossal type of corrupt administration, not only for the United States, but for the whole world."

As one instance of the corruption in Philadelphia, it is mentioned that some years ago, "under the direction of a self-perpetuating board, the construction of a city hall was begun. Already $20,000,000 has been spent, but the building is not yet by any means completed and it is a universally conceded fact that the board will go on perpetuating itself in power and squandering millions indefinitely. Yet there is no effort to change these conditions, there is scarce even a protest against them."

THREE hundred traveling men, who had faithfully represented the interests of the Liggett & Myers and other tobacco companies recently absorbed by the trust, were discharged by telegraph. Each of the three hundred received a short, laconic, brutal message to the effect that his "services were no longer needed." Not one of them was provided with transportation or the means to bring himself and his sample cases home. This had to be done at their own expense.

The Trust is the soulless and heartless master of the situation, and it means business! And just here we will say to the tobacco trust and all the other satan's brood of Republican-spawned, bottomless pit aggregations of wickedness, that the people of this country also mean business—and they spell it with capital letters! Just wait! It will be more than a cyclone. It will be an earthquake and a tornado combined.

WAIT!—St. Louis Mississippi Valley Democrat.

The trusts are out for the "stuff" and what would they care if these traveling men even starved to death? They don't care a snap for the people, so long as the bicklers of the combines can enrich themselves by advancing the price of their goods. Not a single instance can be pointed out where the trusts organized in the past year have reduced the price of the articles produced. On the contrary they have invariably advance prices. It is all a big game of "grab" with them now, because they realize that sooner or later, the people will rise in their might and crush them.
